

The Director
Central Intelligence Agency

Washington, D.C. 20505

31 March 1980

Dear Bob,

Many thanks for your letter of 21 March. I found the dinner discussion both interesting and stimulating, and especially appreciated your coming from Chicago to take part. Your participation certainly contributed to the lively discussion and made an important contribution.

[Redacted area]

STAT

Yours,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Stansfield Turner".

STANSFIELD TURNER

Mr. Robert Z. Aliber
Chairman, The Committee on Public Policy Studies
The University of Chicago
1050 East Fifty-ninth Street
Chicago, Illinois 60637